

National unity thro paintings

Express News Service

HYDERABAD, Jan. 3

Mr. J. V. Narsing Rao, Deputy Chief Minister, inaugurating an exhibition of paintings by a group of seven young painters of the Government College of Arts and Crafts of Madras, at Kala Bhavan here today, commended exchange of such exhibitions between different States to promote national integration.

Cine actor K. Jaggiah, who presided, stressed the role of actors in moulding the character of society.

The exhibition was organised under the auspices of the Seven Stars Syndicate.

Mr. B. A. V. Sandilya, president of the syndicate, welcomed the gathering.

J.V. opens students' paintings exhibition

By a staff reporter

HYDERABAD, Jan. 3

An exhibition of paintings done by seven young students of the Madras Government College of Arts and Crafts opened here today at the Kala Bhavan.

The Deputy Chief Minister, Mr. J. V. Narsing Rao, who declared the exhibition open praised the courage of the artists in exhibiting their works though still they were students.

Mr. K. Jaggiah, famous cine artiste, said that the artists represented a dynamic social force.

The exhibition has been sponsored by the Seven Stars Syndicate. Its President Mr. B. A. V. Sandilya, welcomed the guests and the seven young artists, who are: Syder Thajudeen, Suriya Kumar, Thangavelu, Varada Reddy, Loganathan, Sushila and Nath.

The exhibition will remain open daily till January 8 at the Kala Bhavan, between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. and 4 p.m. and 8 p.m. Admission is free.

and 'War and Peace'.

Syed Thajudeen is a promising young artist. He has presented very successfully a popular Tamillian story of a crew seeking justice from the king in one of his compositions. His work, 'Temptation' is also executed in contemporary idiom and shows promise.

There is hardly any doubt that creative work are above the petty quarrels of religion, language, caste and creed. Such exhibitions of art would indeed go a long way in creating amity and understanding. The President of Seven Stars Syndicate, Mr. B. A. V. Sandilya, deserves congratulations.

— D. N. VARMA.